Fossils: Reconstruction and Interpretation
Distorted by Assumptions', CEN Tech. J., 8(2), 1994, pp. 166–178.

On p. 167, the second column, under Figure 2, the second full sentence should have read:–

The left side of the lower jaw had been reconstructed to match the right side and it also fitted perfectly into the temporomandibular fossa on the left side of the cranium.
