Saturday's Speakers

DR BENNO ZUIDDAM is a minister in the Dutch Reformed Church, teaches Christian ethics at the Free University (Amsterdam), and is a research associate of North West University (South Africa). He holds a D.Th. in Church history and a Ph.D. in Greek. Research focus: divine revelation and implications for a Christian worldview and ethics.

DR ROGER LIEBI has an M.Mus., B.Th., M.Th., and Th.D. He has studied music, languages of the Biblical world (Greek, Classical and modern Hebrew, Aramaic), and theology. As a university teacher he taught Archaeology of Israel and the Middle East from 2004–2011. He is active as a Bible teacher in various countries and is the author of numerous books.

SUSAN JONES has a B.Sc. in Physics and a PGCE teaching certificate from Southampton University. For over 15 years, she taught physics, chemistry, and biology at both private and state secondary schools. Director of Creation Family Science, which she founded in 2011, she is passionate about communicating her faith in God and enthusiasm for science.

ANDREW SIBLEY holds a B.Sc. in natural sciences, M.Sc. in Environmental Decision Making (Open University), and M.Phil. in theology (Exeter University). He took early retirement in 2021 after 38 years as a meteorologist for the UK Met Office, joining CMI staff as a writer and speaker. He is author of Restoring the Ethics of Creation.

ILANAH PRUIS holds a bachelors in Health & Life Sciences and an M.S. in Neuroscience. She has been a junior lecturer and is working on her Ph.D. at Erasmus Medical Centre (Rotterdam). A keen biblical creationist, she contributes to podcasts and is a board member of Logos Instituut, a creation apologetics organisation in The Netherlands.

PHIL ROBINSON is Chairman of Creation Outreach Ministries and an associate speaker and writer for CMI, based in Northern Ireland. With degrees in Education (B.Ed.) and Theology (M.Div.), he is passionate to communicate creation truths. He is also a prolific writer of articles for Creation magazine, creation.com and Journal of Creation.

DR ANDRÉ JUTHE has a Ph.D. in Argumentation Theory, M.A. in Theoretical Philosophy, M.A. in Religious Studies, M.Ed., and B.A. in practical philosophy. He works in Sweden as a teacher of philosophy, religion, and psychology. He became a Christian at 16 years old, immediately realising evolution was incompatible with a biblical worldview.

LUCIEN TUINSTRA holds a B.Sc. in Applied Physics and M.C.Ed. in Biblical Education and Apologetics from Institute of Creation Research. He lived in Spain (2000–2004), then Scotland (until 2018) working as an engineer in the gas industry. He joined CMI as a speaker and writer and is passionate to proclaim Creation and Gospel Truth.

PROF STUART BURGESS has held academic posts at Bristol and Cambridge Universities & Liberty University (USA), has won many prestigious awards in bioengineering, and published over 180 academic papers. Stuart has spoken in many countries globally—professionally and as a creation apologist—and has authored many books.

Thank you! We want to say a big thank you to all who have faithfully supported CMI, whether by prayer or financially. Without you we would not be able to plan and host conferences like this one.

Welcome

We anticipate that CMI's third European Creation Conference will be a wonderful opportunity for Christians, and perhaps others, to learn from experts in their various fields. Also included is a free Saturday afternoon programme for 11-14 year olds. Evenings are kept free to allow you more time to relax, socialise with new friends, and to make travelling to your accommodation easier. This truly is a European conference. We are welcoming five speakers from overseas, and half of our speakers are natives of countries outside the UK. They have a wealth of experience to share. On Saturday afternoon there are optional seminars, some of which are semi-technical. Come along, be inspired, equipped, even challenged to think again—for the glory of God.

Registration

Friday £22 | Saturday £22 | Both days £40

16 year olds and under FREE (but registration still required)

It's quick and easy to book your places online at:

Accessibility: The Emmanuel Centre has wheelchair access into the main hall (with an adjoining toilet). We regret that no other part of the centre is wheelchair friendly.

FRIDAY 23 September

We certainly live in 'sinking times', so before getting into scientific details, we commence with a brand new presentation by Thomas Fretwell (pastor and apologist), laying the foundations for all our thinking. Thereafter, the speakers will inform and stretch your thinking on a fascinating variety of topics. We look forward to learning from the fruits of the speakers' latest researches as biblical creationists. Throughout, we'll see that good science fully supports the Bible.

Friday's Speakers

THOMAS FRETWELL has a B.Th. and M.A. in Theology and is working on a Ph.D. Tutor in theology tutor at Kings Evangelical Divinity School. An associate speaker with CMI, he is the pastor of Calvary Chapel Hastings on England's south coast. He is the author of several books, including Who Am I? Human Identity and the Gospel in a Confusing World.

RAMÓN GÓMEZ has a B.Th. from the Instituto Bíblico y Seminario Teológico de España, a B.A., and recently gained an M.Sc. in Science and Society from the Open University (UK), on the implications of new DNA-editing technologies (CRISP). He has had professional roles within the EU and speaks regularly on creation apologetics in several languages.

PROF ANDY MCINTOSH lectured in combustion and thermodynamics for more than 40 years. With a Ph.D. in combustion theory and a D.Sc. in applied mathematics, his passion to communicate on apologetics and the Christian faith takes him to countries all over the world. His award-winning bombardier beetle research is still producing good fruit.

PHILIP BELL is CEO of CMI-UK/Europe and has worked full time as a creation apologist since 2001. His background is in zoology, geology, cancer research and science teaching. A regular CMI speaker, he is author of Evolution and the Christian Faith, a dinosaur book for children, and the contributing editor of Does Evolution Explain Everything About Life?

MR VIJA SODERA is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons. He looked after a Minor Injuries Unit and ran his own Skin Surgery clinic on the England's south coast for many years. He is the author of One Small Speck to Man: the evolution myth, plus a number of acclaimed textbooks on skin surgery & skin cancer diagnosis. More books are planned!
